ITEM 8.01. Other Events.

On December 13, 2004 Primus Telecommunications Group, Incorporated (“Primus” or the “Company”) received an opinion and a court order dated December 8, 2004 granting Primus’s motion to dismiss the shareholder derivative action that had been filed in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia, Alexandria Division (Taddy v. Primus). Plaintiff had sued the current members of Primus’s Board of Directors and Messrs. Earle, Hazard and Hamlin (the “Primus Defendants”) on behalf of Primus for alleged violations of state law, including breach of fiduciary duty, abuse of control, gross mismanagement, waste of corporate assets and unjust enrichment.

The court dismissed the complaint because plaintiff failed to: (1) make a demand on Primus’s Board of Directors before filing the action as required by Delaware law or (2) allege with the requisite specificity that such a demand would have been futile. The court denied plaintiff’s request to amend the complaint and dismissed the complaint with prejudice. Plaintiff has 30 days in which to appeal this order.
